The Importance of Being Different.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Daniel Untermoser (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Daniel Untermoser from Agrar Hak Althofen. He is 18 years old, he lives in Seeboden and he associates his life with blue, a relaxing colour.

He is a very nice guy, who would like to be remembered as a friendly and honest person. Daniel always carries his mobile phone, his flint and his cigarettes. What makes him really happy is having a good time with his friends. His favourite smells are his haircream "strandmatte" and his tobacco. He likes music and plays videogames like FIFA.

What he most dislikes about himself is saying bad things when he gets angry, he hopes he will be able to control himself a bit more in the future. Nothing keeps him awake at night: he is a quiet and serene guy who wants to live his life with passion and curiosity. In fact, his motto is "You only live once (YOLO)". He is also very affectionate to his family, the most precious gift he received from God when he was born.

In conclusion, I want to say that I am really glad to have met him and I look forward to seeing him and all his classmates again next April.

Dominik Primus (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Dominik Primus during the Exchange program. He's a sociable guy full of humour from Prebl in Carinthia (Austria). He lives on a farm and he attends an agricultural school in order to learn how to manage one on his own.

Dominik's idea of perfect happiness is living without worries. Yet he is a bit concerned about his distraction which causes some inconveniences. He always carries his wallet and his mobile phone. He loves the smell of engines. His greatest ambition is to become a judge.

His motto is: "No shame to fall down, but not to get up", he can't sleep when he thinks about past regrets. He would like to be remembered for the good enterprises he will have accomplished in his life. The most important lesson he has learned from life is that he should carefully avoid dangerous situations.

He associates his life with the colour green which expresses harmony with nature and men.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Andre Oberdorfer (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

During the school exchange with the Austrian class I interviewed Andre Oberdorfer from Agrar Hak Althofen school.

Andre is a very outgoing, cheerful and a bit impulsive person; in fact, his idea of perfect happiness is having fun with his friends. His personality is really different from mine! He is friendly, and that is what he likes about himself, but he dislikes his nose because it is too small and he hates his shyness with girls.

He always carries with him his mobile phone and his wallet. His greatest ambition is to become rich and self confident! Disappointing his parents keeps him awake at night. He really likes black, a dark and strong colour; he would like to be remembered as a good friend and a reliable person.

Andre's motto in life is: "Live every day as if it were the last". I think he is a nice person and I am very pleased to be in contact with him.

Sabine Felle (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

Sabine is my new partner for the project “Biodiversity: The Importance of Being Different”, school year 2014- 2015. I interviewed her at ISIS Malignani in Udine on 5th February 2015.

First of all, she confessed her greatest extravagance is her love for classical music. She also revealed her idea of perfect happiness, which is travelling around the world, meeting a lot of people of different languages and origins and establishing satisfactory relationships.

In addition, she disclosed her personality: she's very sympathetic and sociable. She constantly carries her cell telephone to stay in touch with her friends and her home keys. She doesn't like her hair but she likes her teeth, besides she loves food and she cannot resist the temptation of eating when she smells it. Her motto is “Don't spend your time to hate your neighbours, but spend your time to love your friends.”

Finally she told me the best lesson life has taught her is “whatever happens, life is always beautiful”; for this reason she associates her life only with bright colors like turquoise.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Armin Wolger (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

Armin is a 16 year-old, Austrian guy, that I encountered met through the project “Biodiversity: The Importance of Being different.”. He was nice and polite.

His idea of perfect happiness is lying on the sofa and daydreaming. He is very fond of farming; in fact, he always the keys of his tractor with him (he is an expert of tractors and, in general, of farm life!).

His favorite smell is the fragrance of nature, of trees and grass, and he associates his life with green, the color of nature and the peace of the countryside. He is a confident person and he likes his personality. He also loves watching television and for this reason he tends to go to bed quite late at night. He does not have a motto in life, but he would like to be remembered as a good person and he wants to become a great farmer.

In conclusion, I think that Armin is a good guy, and I think we will have fun together when we meet again in Austria.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Franziska Urbanek (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Franziska, a girl from the Agrar Hak in Althofen. She is a sporty girl, tall and slim with blonde hair.

She told me that perfect happiness is living in harmony with her family. She's satisfied with her appearance and her motto in life is "It's never too late". The most important lesson life has taught her is that in all sports you can win as well as you can lose and she would like to be remembered as a good person with a touch of ambition.

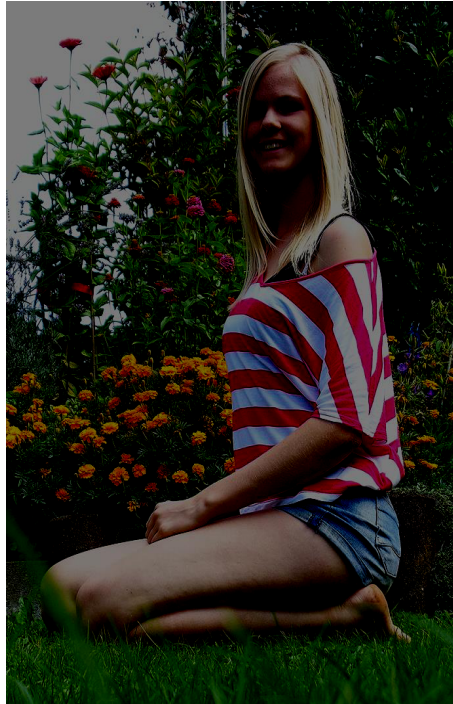

She always carries her mobile, some money and the house keys. Her favorite smell is the smell of a just-made cake and what keeps her awake at night is a good party with all friends. Her ambition in life is to get successful in sports or a professional career. She associates her life with the colour green, symbol of hope and great expectations.

Overall, I think that my partner is a nice person, quiet and original. I hope to meet her again.

Caveng-Bernhard Nicole (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed a girl from Agrar Hak in Althofen. Her name is Nicole. She is a pretty girl, very tall and she has got long blonde hair.

In winter her idea of perfect happiness is going to the disco with friends, and in summer having a barbecue with her family. Colourful funny bags are her greatest extravagance. Shyness is her weak point and she also dislikes her height. Her motto is “What doesn't kill you, makes you stronger” and the most important lesson life has taught her is to surround herself with people she loves. She wants to be remembered as a good friend and a trustworthy person.

She cannot live without her mobile phone, her pocket money, her home keys and her original bags. Nicole is a good student and she gets fine marks. She loves spring, because she can smell the perfume of strawberries, her favourite smell. Nicole's ambition is working in Island. She is a pensive girl, infact thoughts about her past keep her awake at night. The colour that she associates her life with is blue because it's a quiet and inspiring colour.

Finally, she is a funny girl with a sharp sense of humour. It was a very beautiful day, because I could meet a nice girl who lives in another country. That's the reason why I'm so happy to have another day to spend with her.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Anja Auer (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Anja Auer. She comes from Agrar Hak Althofen school, she is very funny, I spent a nice day with her.

In the beginning she was a bit shy but later in the day she felt more at ease and we really enjoyed ourselves. Anja's idea of perfect happiness is hanging around with her friends. She is happy even when she surfs the internet with her mobile phone. The color Anja associates her life with is "red": red like her bag which she always carries with her. Another object she is affectionate to is her mobile phone. Her favorite smell is the smell of pizza, she never gets tired of it.

Her greatest ambition is to finish school with high grades; sometimes she worries about school and that keeps her awake at night. She would like to be remembered as a nice person and a good friend. The most important lesson life has taught her is "There's a remedy for everything except death" and her motto "As long as I am alive, I want to be the maker of my own destiny".

I totally agree with her: life is a precious gift. I hope to meet her soon and visit her school and her territory.

Tschermenjak Bernhard (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

During the cultural exchange, I have had the honor of interviewing a very nice guy named Tschermenjak Bernhard from the agricultural college of Althofen.

I found out that we have two things in common: a passion for football and also hazelnut ice cream. His favorite player is Cristiano Ronaldo and his favorite team is the real Madrid. Bernhard one day hopes to become a famous football player.

Bernhard adores studying Italian and a little 'less mathematics. His favorite color is blue and most of his clothes have this colour. he buys only blue clothes. It was a real pleasure to interview Bernhard: we both found this class exchange very useful and entertaining.

Klarer Eugen (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Klarer Eugen from Brukl in Austria and he attends the Agrar Hak Althofen school. He is very sociable and funny person.

Eugen's idea of happiness is being with friends and having fun with them. His extravagance is to keep away from the boring and the noisy people. Eugen is satisfied with his look and his unconventional style.

His favourite sport is football: his motto is "Mia san Mia" the Bayern Munchen hymn and the best time of his life was the victory of UCL of Bayern. He adores both red and blue, very energetic colours. He would like to be remembered as a good and friendly person. He always carries with him his mobile phone and some pocket money.

Eugen is very motivated in his life. I'm so pleased to have met such an interesting person!

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Anne Gaggl (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

“No risk, no fun” this is Anne’s motto. She is a nice girl from Austria.

She associates her life with orange, which is her favourite color. My impression is that she is a cheerful person with a positive attitude to life, that’s why she has chosen such a brilliant color. Her favourite smell is the smell of cinnamon. She always carries with her a hair band and her mobile phone.

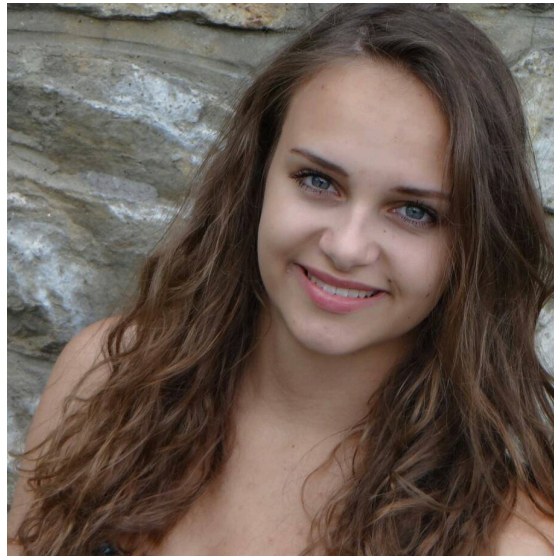

Anne loves wild nature and animals and maybe this is her greatest extravagance. She thinks she would be perfectly happy if she could stay with her friends and her animals, cows and horses, and play sports. Her greatest ambition is to move to America and to live in a big ranch with a lot of horses.

Nightmares keep her awake at night, dark circles appear under her eyes which she hates. What Anne most likes about herself are her lips. She is scared of serious diseases which can be lethal. She would like to be remembered as a free person. Anne learnt an important lesson in her life: to pursue her personal happiness.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Margaret Steinberger (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

Margaret Steinberger was the girl I interviewed. She is from “Agrar Hak Althofen”. She is a pretty girl with a beautiful smile.

Margaret loves going to parties. She would like to be remembered as a helpful friend. Moreover, the most important lesson life has taught her is sharing and caring: being together keeps teenagers away from bad encounters. Margaret loves the sweet smell of roses and her favourite colour is purple because she associates it with fun.

Margaret likes her wavy hair but she detests her straight nose. Sometimes she talks too much and she is too impulsive. She always carries her house keys and her mobile. Her biggest ambition is travelling around the world.

Her motto is “have fun every day” and keep smiling. I’m looking forward to seeing her again, because I have been impressed by her positive attitude to life.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Nicole Thaler (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

On 5th February I met Nicole Thaler, an Austrian girl who loves animals, nature and happy people. She is a very strong and funny girl!

Think positive is the key to happiness. She has a little horse which she adores, probably in a year she will ride in the country side. She cannot live without her mobile and her pocket money, she likes the smell of wet leaves; she does not like her legs, and people who can not wait for something.

Niki's ambition is to work with animals, especially sheep and horses. When she goes to bed she makes plans about the following day and reflects upon the day just finished. Her favourite color is blue because it reminds her of the blue sky and of the clear water: blue is the symbol of freedom.

Her motto in life is ' Don't be sad! Follow your dreams'. This motto reflects her entrepreneurial personality.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Ines Engler (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

Ines was my partner during the school exchange: a very nice and friendly girl!

Her idea of perfect happiness is the freedom of movement and of thought. Her greatest ambition is to become a gymnast and the colour she associates her life with is the blue sky. She wears glasses and she always carries her mobile phone; she has got a lot of pets and this is her greatest extravagance. She likes her eyes, but she dislikes her body.

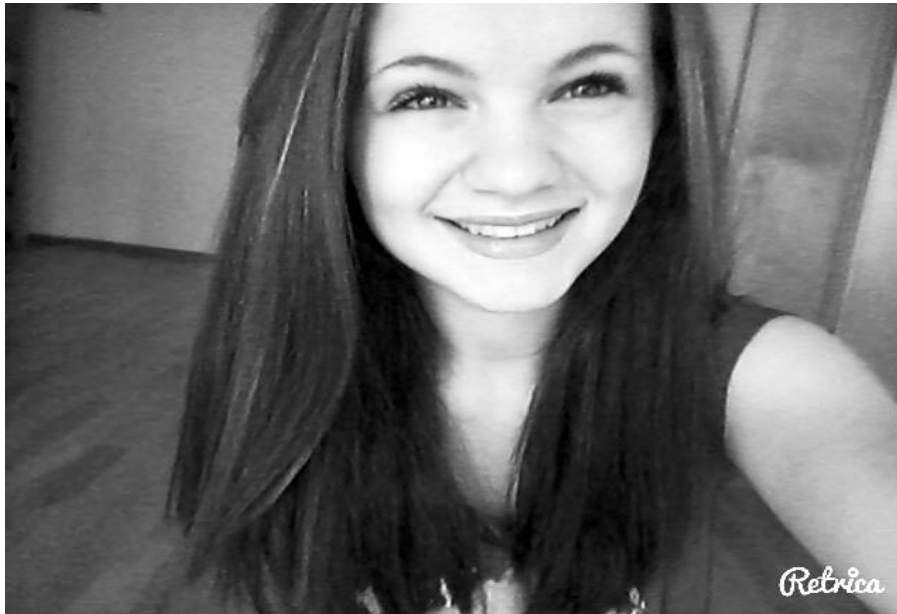

Her motto in life is: “live your life no matter what, do what you like without caring about the opinion of the others”. She would like to be remembered as a clever and funny person.

All in all, I really like her and I hope there will be other opportunities for us to meet again.

By Nassimbeni Matteo, 3°C LSA, I.S.I.S. Malignani

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Birgit Greiler (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Birgit Greiler from AGRAR-HAK highschool of Althofen, in Austria. She's a really nice girl who loves pop music. We share similar musical tastes. Her ideal of perfect happiness is living in harmony with herself and others. She is very shy but also a bit crazy because she likes touching people's cheeks!

She doesn't like her hair so much, but she really likes the colour of her eyes, an amazing mix of green, grey and blue. Her favourite smell is the Wonderstruck perfume. She always carries her mobile phone and headphones. In the future she wishes to visit Greece and to manage her own farm.

She would like to be remembered as a solid friend and an optimistic person. Her motto in life is : "What doesn't kill you, makes you stronger" . I was really pleased to meet her because she's a very kind and sensitive girl.

By Pascoletti Irene, 3°C LSA, I.S.I.S. Malignani

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Celin Koprivnikar (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Celin Koprivnikar from 2DHH Agrar Hak Haltofen. Her motto in life is 'what doesn't kill you makes you stronger'.

Her ambition in life is to finish school and buy a harvester. She adores Fend tractors and her favourite colours are blue and red. She loves nature and she hopes to live on a farm with a happy family and lots of horses and sheep.

She really hates her shyness, but she knows she can get over it. She is so funny and kind. About her appearance, she thinks she is a little bit too fat, but in my opinion her body size is standard. On the other hand, however, she likes her long and blonde hair and her dark-chocolate eyes

When she goes out, she always carries her mobile phone and at least one hair clip. Before she goes out, she puts on her favourite strawberry perfume. Who keeps her awake at night is her boyfriend or her hateful sister. As time passes she has understood that nobody changes.

She would like to be remembered as a determined but caring person. My impression is that she puts a lot of passion in everything she does.

By Pascutti Davide, 3°C LSA, I.S.I.S. Malignani

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Thomas Pirker (Agrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Thomas Pirker from Agrar Hak of Althofen. He's a really nice guy who loves soccer.

He's a particular guy, not really self-confident; he dislikes his freckles, even if I think they're really cute, but he appreciates his ability in playing soccer. His passion is soccer and he wants to become a plane pilot. He would like to be remembered as a great soccer player. He always carries with him his mobile, his wallet and his house key. He didn't say anything about his idea of perfect happiness and about his greatest extravagance, I think because he's a very reserved person.

One of his defect is that he's really emotional and he is often anxious and worried, but he's a really strange guy too: his favourite smell is pizza! He lives in a really small city and he loves staying out with his friends. At night he stays awake thinking about school's problems, but I think he's a motivated person, that's why his motto is "What doesn't kill you, makes you stronger".

I was really pleased to meet him because he's an interesting guy.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Doris Pfeifhofer (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Doris Pfeifhofer from Austria. She is fifteen years old and the first thing I noticed about her was her joy and her bright smile.

Doris has a radiant personality and she associates her life with blue, which represents the beginning of a new life, springtime for example. My impression is that she puts fun into everything she does.

One of Doris' greatest extravagances is her passionate relationship with food, she loves it and she eats a lot. Furthermore, she also loves sleeping, in fact nothing can keep her awake at night. Her favourite perfume is the fragrance of "One Million", which she always brings along with her, just like her phone and her handkerchiefs.

In her opinion, happiness is feeling free, being able to do what she wants. Doris would like to be remembered as a nice and funny person, always ready to help both her friends and her family whenever. She likes her eyes, her humour and her generosity, even if she admitted that sometimes she gets annoyed too easily.

Her motto in life is: "At the end, it doesn't matter how many breaths you took in your life, but how many moments took your breath away". Doris is a very sincere person: talking with her for a short time, I felt she is someone I can count on.

By Regis Nicole, 3°C LSA, I.S.I.S. Malignani

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Johanna Stendli (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

Johanna is the new partner in the project “Biodiversity. I interviewed her at ISIS Malignani in Udine on 05th February 2015 during the first exchange day. She is a cute girl and associates her life with green, the color of hope. She was born in 1998 in Germany, she loves her country and her language.

She thinks that perfect happiness is living with her friends and family in a comfortable house. She always brings with her her hat and mobile phone, she can't live without them! She hates her nose but she really likes her eyes and hair. Her favorite smell is Giorgio Armani and her favourite food is pizza.

Nothing keeps Johanna awake at night, because she sleeps heavily. She would like to be remembered as a nice person and a cool friend! Her motto is “no risk no fun”: she doesn't want to live without danger, it would be a boring life.

I believe that I and Johanna have a lot in common, she is an adventurous and fearless girl. I am looking forward to seeing her.

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Ferdinand Felsberger (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Ferdinand Felsberger, from secondary school “Hak Agrar Althofen”. Initially, he was a bit shy but, after a few minutes, I had no difficulties in socializing with him.

His idea of perfect happiness is having enough of what he really needs. In fact, he always carries with him his mobile phone. I found him a very sincere person who doesn't give importance to useless things.

The personality trait that he most dislikes in himself is not being very assertive in discussions. What he most dislikes about his appearance are his pimples. On the other hand, he likes his fit body. His favorite smell is the smell of gasoline.

Sometimes he is kept awake at night by the problems of his family. He wants to be remembered as an important farmer. The most important moral lesson for him is “never give up, even in the worst conditions”. Green is his special color which reminds him of nature, the fields and his farm.

I was really pleased to interview him, because I learned a lot of things about a different culture. I hope to meet him again.

By Trost Andrea, 3°C LSA, I.S.I.S. Malignani

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Ferdinand Felsderger (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Ferdinand Felsderger from Althofen in Austria. He is an amusing but shy boy. Ferdinand's greatest extravagance is to live on a farm because he loves animals and nature. When he finishes school, his ambition is to have his own farm. For this reason the colour he associates his life with is green.

Ferdi likes the smell of petrol and has a great sense of humour. He is fit but with a few spots on his face which he detests. He would like to have a stronger personality. The most important lesson life has taught him is never to give up: after the rain the sun will shine again. Although we are very different, I am really happy to have met him.

By Vallan Alessandro, 3°C LSA, I.S.I.S. Malignani

BIODIVERSITY 2015: my partner's profile

Kathrin Kurej (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I interviewed Kathrin from AGRAR-HAK Althofen, beyond Klagenfurt in Austria. She's a really smart girl who loves music.

Her idea of perfect happiness is to stay in contact with her family and friends. She is a nice girl really self-confident, she always carries her phone, her keys, some money and a fruity labello. Her hobbies are taking photos and listening to country music: Kathrin spent a lot of money for her camera and for printing huge posters.

She would like to be remembered as a pretty and kind girl, occasionally too thoughtful. She is willing to help people in need even if they do not deserve it. She would like to be less emotionally involved.

Her greatest ambitions are to complete her secondary education in 5 years, to find a satisfactory job, to have a family. About her look, Kathrin dislikes her smile, but I think it is wonderful. She wants to spend time with old people who won't be alive for long. Her motto is : "wake up and start the day with a big smile!".

I was really pleased to meet Kathrin because she's a very passionate girl, and I hope to stay in contact with her.

Michael Kampl (Hagrar HAK – Althofen)

I recently had the pleasure of asking a couple of questions to Michael Kampl from an Austrian school, the Agrar Hak Althofen.

We have a lot in common: we are both 16 and we both like the smell of the perfume One Million. We share the idea that perfect happiness means to have a good time with our family, especially when we are on holiday. We have both learnt that punctuality is a form of respect for the other human beings.

Michael always carries with him his phone, his wallet, his headphones. I remember him like a smiling person: I love his smile, yet his big mouth is what he most dislikes about his appearance. He is a polite and calm person.

His favorite color is blue, like the sea or the sky for example. At the same time he is a really competitive boy: he wants to be number one in all activities. His greatest ambition is to be a successful person.

In conclusion, I believe Michael is a great person. I hope to see him again very soon. I am so happy for this new friend.
